PRESIDENTS REPORT 12 MARCH 2014

Last Wednesday we enjoyed a presentation on Chinese History and Culture by Yan Zhang, assisted by Paulin Pearson-Smith. It was a fascinating summary of the richness of traditional Chinese history expressed in paintings and particularly in dance. It is difficult to describe how dress, colour and movement is used to illustrate aspects of the traditional ways. Yan is promoting Shen Yun 2014, which is on show from 27 – 30 March at the Melbourne Arts Centre in the State Theatre.

Next week we will have Norm Casey giving us a talk on the Rotary project ROMAC, chaired by Adrian.

Geoff Taylor has once again volunteered to drive a support vehicle for the Rotary Bike ride for research. He is also involved in Blaze Aid assistance, so if any members want to know about how to help with Blaze Aid, Geoff will be pleased to hear from them.

Planning is underway for the Good Friday Charity Golf day. Thank you to Lou Paola and Philip McKenzie for agreeing to assist the “Two Ronnies” with the planning. Ron and Don have run this successfully for many years and deserve a bit of time on the bench, although they will not be far from the action when needed. For new members, the traditional Royal Children’s Hospital appeal is the major beneficiary of this Golf day.

Ros has advised us that bookings for the District Conference at Bendigo are now closed as the Conference is fully subscribed – an excellent effort by the organisers, particularly when the Rotary International Conference in Sydney is only three months away. I am personally looking forward to my first International Conference.

We have three teams confirmed for MUNA 2014, two from Avila and one from Highvale. I haven’t heard from Pete Rees regarding Huntingtower submitting a team, but entries close next week.

See you Wednesday

Terry
