Rhonda's Report (for 16 July 2014) –

Apart from me taking over as Chairman, it was a great meeting. Sorry Malcolm. I will get it right eventually.

Retired Brigadier Neale Bavington was our guest speaker and spoke with us about the South Pacific. He gave us wonderful insights into the South Pacific islands and some of the problems that face these people. He never ceases to amaze us with his wealth of knowledge. Once again we have all enjoyed Neale's skill in telling stories. One of the things he shared was the unique way justice is administered by Polynesians. Maybe this is a better alternative than to incarcerate offenders as is the western system. Some of the third world countries can teach us valuable lessons.

I spoke again about the need to increase our membership. We have over 30% of our members over 70. We want to retain these valued members but we need to look forward and to ensure the clubs survival this has to be a priority. We are going to try to have an interesting guest speaker once a month to be able to entice potential members to attend ie; we may make it the second Wednesday of the month. We will work with Leighoak to ensure that a good meal is on the menu for that evening also. Stay tuned for more information, but in the meantime please think of someone who would enjoy being part of our club. Please keep Ros in the picture with any potential members.

Should you also know any interesting speakers please let Robyn know.

I will not be at the meeting this Wednesday. Malcolm will be acting President.
