PRESIDENTS REPORT (18 April for 23 April 2014)

I am writing this on Good Friday so I hope that today's Golf day is successful. I am still in Hobart so I hope the weather at the golf course is good for a successful fundraising day.

I haven't heard much about last Wednesday except that once again Marilyn excelled herself as hostess. I look forward to getting feedback when I return. I have received a notice from District on the latest membership statistics. An extract of this message appears below.

"Membership Observations.

Reviewing the District 9810 membership numbers based on the results recently published, an initial glance at the bottom line shows that the District membership is up 17 year-to-date. So our District membership is stable we are not showing, based on these figures, any dramatic membership decline.

However we are also not showing any significant signs of a growth in membership despite the message, given out to the Club President's, of a RI key focus is that we grow our membership by 3%. Looking at the Club numbers in more detail shows that we have a significant number of Clubs that are reaching a critical level. The following table (Ed..table is not included) shows the picture in perspective with 54% of our Districts Clubs with 25 or less members."

I am more positive about these statistics given a prior declining trend. However this is one important item on the agenda for the upcoming District Assembly.

I am a fairly harsh judge of the value of some District Rotary meetings. However I can recommend the District Assembly as a well structured and worthwhile District Meeting. In fact I believe that it is very valuable for all Board members, Club Chairs and new members to attend if at all possible, and I am likely to remind you regularly of this upcoming event.

Mark this in your diary, paper or electronic.

District Assembly

Sunday 18th May 2014

8:30am – 1:30pm

Parkdale Secondary College

Warren Road

Mordialloc Vic 3195

I realise that for some people this clashes with Church Services and personal commitments should come first. I can only ask that you to attend if you can, or ask another club member to attend on your behalf.

This Wednesday is our ANZAC Day commemoration so let's have a good roll up for this solemn occasion. Our member Major Sean Derbyshire will be the keynote speaker

Until then
Terry

CONGRATULATIONS & CELEBRATIONS

MEMBERS ANNOUNCEMENTS

From Ros Clowes for the Lannan's Card

To give thanks for the amazing hospitality and to acknowledge Pat & Marilyn's 50th Anniversary and Marilyn's upcoming 70th birthday, the Club presented a card (attached) with every member's message and signature. Not an easy task, given so many are always overseas or interstate, but the Lannan's well deserve everyone's appreciation and congratulations.

Many thanks to you both – especially Marilyn for cordon bleu meal and Pat for a fantastic and very generous bar.

Love from all 32 members, including some who were so keen that they've signed twice.
