Presidents Report for 25 January 2017

Hello Rotary members and welcome back for 2017. We started the year with a BBQ meeting with Monash Rotary Club and followed the next week with the Oakleigh Rotary club. Now its back to work for all our members. Next week the 25th Jan. we have 3 Afghanistan Refugees and members of the Red Cross to tell us about the terrible experience of fleeing from the Taliban and finding sanctuary in Australia. This will be a very sad tale for one person and questions will need to be sensitive and limited to one question each. We are also expecting a visitor friend of Ros Clowes to come and meet us. Also one of our members is very sick at this time and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Cheers
Keith

MEMBERS ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMMUNITY

Monash Waverley Community Information and Support – Second Bite Food Program (Coles pickup).

Calling all members to please consider volunteering for the roster of our MWCIS project to pick up food from Coles Pinewood and deliver to MWCIS in Holskamp st Mt Waverley, each Friday at 9am. This Community Project is not onerous and takes about 15 minutes. The roster system means each volunteer only has to commit to 15 minutes once every 8 or so weeks. Please contact the Bulletin Editor if you can volunteer.

Thanks

Glen Watkins

FUNDRAISING

Saturday's fundraising event, Bunnings BBQ, was a perfect weather day. Few drops of rain in the morning followed by a beautiful day to entice locals to become motivated around their own homes and complete gardening and odd jobs. It paid off for Mt Waverley Rotary Club and dozens of people visiting Bunnings purchased the sausages. After expenses our Club has raised another $1112.40. Great effort from all the Rotarians who were able to assist. To top it off everyone had fun helping out, thank you all.

Beth Merkus

PROGRAMME

This Wednesday evening, 25th January, three young refugees from Afghanistan have kindly agreed to speak to our group on the eve of Australia Day. As these young men have, in the past, been subjected to torture and trauma, for their wellbeing, I would like to ask that members show understanding and not ask questions of a sensitive nature." Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Margot Eaton
