PRESIDENTS REPORT 26 MARCH 2014

Unfortunately I wasn't able to join you at the Zest restaurant last Wednesday, but I have had reports that it was a great night and all went well. Thanks to Robyn once again for organising the night.

The only Rotary news I have this week is that we have submitted three teams for MUNA 2014, two from Avila College and one from Highvale. The staff from both schools are now enthusiastic and supportive of this and our other projects.

I am keen to start an essay competition with year six students from a couple of our local primary schools. The theme will be ANZAC, to complement our ANZAC Centenary. If any of you have contacts in local primary schools at year six level, please let me know this week. It will save me several phone calls.

This week Mara Langley is going to talk to us about the Mongolian Blue Spot, so let's have a good roll up for what should be a very interesting presentation.

I am also looking forward to some feedback about the District Conference from those who were able to attend.

See you Wednesday
Terry

VOCATIONAL / SOCIAL NIGHT AT ZEST HOLMESGLEN WED.19th

Our visit turned out to be a really enjoyable night.

Someone who shall remain nameless went to Zest 89 at the Glen by mistake and was on her way to the Leighoak in a panic when she received a call to let her know where we were. (ed....clearly she doesn't read the bulletin...address was on the front page! Fine please) Terry O'Brien insisted disabled sticker cars do not have to pay the $2 parking fee, saying he "would take the risk" and not pay.

We had 3 tables, with Shannon supervising the students capably and helpfully, as he told us it was their first night at Holmesglen Glen Waverley. The students, most of whom were from Mt. Scopus, were all eager and polite, and there were no disasters.

WE opted for a choice of 2 for each course this visit, rather than A la Carte, as this caused less pressure on chefs and waiters for a large group. The food was delectable and the presentation and timing very appropriate.

There were 2 prospective new members present, Kelvin and Mary, and we all had a very fun filled night.

Robyn
