President Report for 27 May

Coats, coats, coats. We only have a week to go for our coat campaign. We have been able to collect about 20 coats and jackets to date. Let's make it 50. Please bring them to the meeting or drop them off at our home.

The 30th Birthday celebration is on 3rd June at the Glen Waverley RSL. Would you please let Philip know whether you will be attending (in Keith's absence).

Terry O'Brien is going to entertain us with one of his famous poems. We are hoping to hear a few stories from our founding members. Please come along and bring your spouses/ partners.

We have also had to move the changeover night to the 1st July due to changes to Sean's work commitments. Once again the more the merrier.

The ANZAC memorial project is well under way and should be finished by mid June.

We have a few members having a rough time with injuries, illness and family deaths. Pat, Terry O'Brien and Beth, our clubs hopes that your illness and sadness will be a thing of the past in no time. We are thinking of you.

Kindest regards
Rhonda McKenzie
