President's Report for 30 September

Nurturing our youth is a significant component of our Club's posture. This week's meeting with our two recent RYLA participants was a pleasant reminder as to how important the investment in new generations is. Both Holly Bruckner and Angela Stapleton spoke very well, and it was clear to all present that they benefited in many positive ways with the opportunity to attend RYLA. Angela also brought her cheer squad to the meeting comprising her mother, her twin sister and three friends. Our guest speaker from District, Timothy Winter also delivered a timely presentation on the forthcoming District Convention that is scheduled for March 2016 at Shepparton. It would be good if a small group of us, particularly those who have not attended a District conference before, can attend. This week I finally cut away to go overseas for work and Keith Kendrick has taken over the reigns. Looking forward to seeing you all upon return in mid-November. All the best for the month of October which is traditionally our busiest month in the Club and also in supporting each other with the diverse range of activities. Our Club has a great culture when it comes to rolling up our sleeves and chipping in together. I hope you all have a few laughs along the way.

Regards
Sean Darbyshire
