Rhonda's Report (for 4 March)

We had the privilege of hearing from our President elect, Sean Darbyshire, about his life journey. Sean was so honest and open about the life that shaped the man. What an amazing story. Thank you Sean for trusting us with such a personal account of your life. What a treat we are in for having Sean as our President for the next year.

It was also my pleasure to induct two new members. A huge welcome to David Bloom and Leonie Dillon. The avenue of service that they will be engaged in is Community. I apologise for not announcing this in the meeting.

As mentioned at the meeting we are trialling two new initiatives:

- SMS reminder about the grocery collection for MWCIS
- Hyperlink to the Rotary Bulletin

These are two month trials and after this time we would welcome feedback.

Just a gentle reminder, the book project for indigenous pre school children is underway. Ask your children whether they have any picture books or simple story books that would be appropriate for 5 year olds and under. This is the opportunity to expose these children to the wonders of books. The intention is that once they have this exposure they are encouraged to want to read thus creating opportunities for them in the future. The blue crate will be at every meeting over the next couple of months. I would appreciate your support for this worthwhile project.

Generally in June and July we have many club members travelling. So that we can maintain the great culture around the club, would you please let me know the dates you will be away so that we can plan accordingly. We would like to have a couple of special evenings where we invite family members to a meeting and on another evening we can invite friends or any potential members.

Thank you Bill Klucso for taking on the very important role of Club Welfare Officer. Please let Bill know should any member be unwell or experiencing difficulty.

I caught up with Pat and Marilyn on Saturday. Pat is in good spirits and enjoyed having a chat. We are hoping to have them join us at the Rose of Thailand on the 18th March. Should they need or want any assistance they will speak with Bill so that he can gather the troops..so to speak.

We will also be inducting Charlie during our function at the Rose of Thailand. Charlie has already been a great addition to the club even before he decided (or was coerced) into joining us.

During our day to day lives we come across some amazing people. Would they be people that you would like to have in our club? Let Ros know and we will extend an invitation for them to join us at a meeting.

Philip and I will be away for the next meeting. Terry will officiate for me. Thank you Terry.

Have a great week.
Kindest regards
Rhonda McKenzie

Oakleigh Market Update

You will be pleased to hear that the Motion to sell and develop the site of the Oakleigh Market was voted down 10:1 on Tuesday night at the Council meeting. In excess of 140 ratepayers attended and I think the councilors got the message. BTW we raised $2200 at Sundays market which was a good result
