PRESIDENTS REPORT

We had a full programme for our meeting last Wednesday, but still managed to finish on time. It was AGM time again and I was happy to confirm that the results of the elections of Club officers for 2014/15 were as follows:

President: Rhonda McKenzie

Secretary: Paul Power

Treasurer: Lyn Walker

Director Club Service: Glen Watkins

In addition to the elected positions, I will remain on the Board as Immediate Past President for 2014/2015. These are the positions required to be determined at the AGM. Remaining positions, including Avenue of Service Chairs, will be finalized during the next few months, prior to the 2014 District Assembly.

Following the AGM, we resumed our normal meeting, and we were pleased to hear from our Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar, Georgina Morrow. We have been receiving wonderful reports of Georgie's experiences in Europe, and we did have one Skype discussion some months ago, but it was good to have her return and share the highlights with us in person. Georgie also presented us with a gift display banner from the Rotary Club of Berlin, GEDACHTNISKIRCHE, in District 1940.

On a more somber note, Geoff Taylor spoke of the passing of Kevin Speer, who was a key figure in the formation of our Club in 1985. Geoff was able to attend Kevin's funeral on behalf of the Club, but perhaps more importantly those Charter and longer serving members that knew him well.

Social night this week. A time for reflection as we have our meeting at the Glen Waverley RSL two days after Remembrance Day.

See you on Wednesday

Terry

On Saturday 30th November 2013, I will be having a present wrapping and labeling morning at my place, from 9:00AM in my garage where there is plenty of space. I will be passing around the usual yellow volunteer form on Wednesday. Even a couple of hours or so will be a great help. Thank you I advance.

FUNDRAISING

1. Christmas Dinner Breakup

To provide some entertainment and to raise funds for the Children's Christmas Party, I thought it might be a good idea to hold an auction as we did a few years ago at the Christmas Dinner to be held on the 4th December.

Members will remember that we had about 25-30 items for sale by bidding and that we raised somewhere in the order of $500 to $600.

My suggestion is that if you are coming to the dinner that you provide an article for the auction by the week prior to the dinner so that it can be catalogued. To get some entertainment value, the donor of the article will be encouraged to give a brief (60 seconds) description and history if pertinent, on the item for sale. The item can be a tangible object, new or in good second hand condition, or a service such as an hour of gardening, accounting or estate planning service etc. Following the 60 second talk, our resident auctioneer will then sell to the highest bidder. If you would like to put a reserve on the item indicate to the auctioneer at the time of sale.

I will be sending around a list closer to the Christmas dinner to get an idea of what you wish to donate for the auction.
