The Penultimate Ros Report

As always, the food at Holmesglen Tafe last Wednesday, prepared by the trainees, was superb. With 23 Rotarian diners from an expected 17, the staff did an excellent job and I look forward to enjoying their cuisine again. It was good to see Romy and Kon and Graham again, plus several partners and there was obviously no need for a guest speaker as there was no let up in the conversation. Thank you Robyn Morrow for organising this vocational outing.

Excellent news - Paul Power attended District Changeover dinner Saturday 15th and took great delight in receiving on our behalf two District Governor Recognitions - one for Club Building (effectively maintaining and increasing membership - Rhonda McKenzie and my focus has really paid off) and one for Club PR and Communications, apparently in recognition of our excellent website (Glen Watkins can take full credit here). We await more information from Paul on Wednesday.

This Wednesday, 19th June, our very own Pete Rees will speak of the 'Rotarian Behind the Badge'. Should be interesting - I am look forward to learning more of Pete's background before we came to know him. Remember that dinner is followed by the final Board meeting for this year.

Expect a few surprises on the night of Wednesday 26th - Changeover Night - when it will be my pleasure to hand the reigns over to PE Terry Roche. His will be a good year - he too has an excellent team lined up.

In the meantime, have fun in Rotary
Ros

CONGRATULATIONS & CELEBRATIONS
